LOCATION

The property is located on the west side of Laughton Road, equidistant between its junctions with New Street and Leopold Street in the heart of Dinnington town centre.

Laughton Road itself is the main high street running through the town and is the home of a variety of occupiers, most notably Aldi, as well as numerous cafes, takeaways and other retail outlets.

DESCRIPTION

The unit comprises of a single, deep retail unit with excellent prominence on Laughton Road. The space benefits from a tiled floor, mineral fibre suspended ceiling with air-conditioning and fluro-strip lighting.

The unit is arranged as a large, open plan sales area with storage and WC's to the rear. Having been trading as Fultons until very recently, the property is in very good condition both internally and externally.

While there is a suspended ceiling in situ, the unit has very high ceiling so there could be the option to increase the floor area.

The building could be split in to a number of smaller units accessed from a pathway leading from Laughton Road to Constable Lane so there is development potential for a purchaser.
