LOCATION

Neepsend, close to Sheffield City Centre, is historically an industrial area, although it is now seen as an up and coming location with a great mix of residential, leisure and commercial developments bringing regeneration to one of Sheffield's original industrial heritage areas.

Hicks Street leads onto Rutland Road (B6070), which is part of Sheffield's outer ring road, leading directly onto Penistone Road (A61) and Barnsley Road which leads to Meadowhall and the M1. The premises offer easy access into Sheffield City Centre approximately 1.5 miles away and to the M1 at Junctions 34, 35 and 36.

DESCRIPTION

The subject site comprises of a 1970's built single storey brick building with ancillary offices on the first floor and a yard to the side. The ground floor provides open plan workshop space, an office and WC's to the rear. There are four electric roller shutters to the front and rear of the premises. The unit does benefit from 3-phase electrics, gas hot air blower heating and suspended lighting.

The first floor accommodates office space, kitchenette and a WC. Externally, there is a parking area fronting Hicks Street along with a separate secure yard space on the corner of Hicks Street and Platt Street.

Opposite the premises, is a 0.1 acre gated piece of land on the corner of Hicks Street and Percy Street. The land is suitable for a variety of uses, subject to planning.
